TAIPEL CITY UNIVERSITY OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY (TPCU)

Taipei City University of Science and Technology initially known as Kuang Wu Industrial Junior college founded in 1971. After 40 years of evaluation and development, The Taipei City University of Science and Technology (TPCU) becomes the official name since 2012.

TPCU participated the "Trophee Mille" Art cooking competition organized in France and supported by French "Grand Est," East Region of France in Novembre 2017. CLOE International has the honor to select a team representing Taiwan to attend this international competition.

Each country composed a team of 2 (one male and one female) senior high schools students or the university students equivalent to a 2nd year of the University study, to prepare the savory dish and the sweet dish. The other team members are one teacher, one principal or a translator.

The Taiwan team's delegation consists of three members:

- Ms. Pen-Zhen JANE, the 2nd-year student of Degree Program in Baking Innovation and Management, is nominated to take care sweet dish. Pen-shen has accumulated some bakery competitions' experiences since two years back.
- Mr. Z-jing Leo TSAI, the 2nd-year student of food and Beverage department, is assigned to prepare the savory dish. Z-jing has demonstrated great interest in cooking since childhood and prefers to staying in European cooking, French cooking in particular for the future career development.

• The accompanying teacher, Mr. Paul Wu, an experienced chef, has acquired substantially French cuisine experience from his former working experience in different International hotels based in Taiwan.

Slovakia: The decoration of savory dish is a symbol of Slovakia's territory. Slovakia receives the best team spiritaward

The only European country's independence without blood. Slovakia seperates from Czech Republic and the country is in plein economic development.

Taiwan: Two young participants has conquered the mouth of the jury. Taiwan Team merits "The best Sweet Dish Award". Congratulations.

